HOME OFFICE APPROVED PROBATION HOSTELS

By R. A. F. COOKS, Probation Officer, County of Kent

With a Foreword by GILBERT J. PAULL, Q.C., Recorder of Leicester (now the Hon. Sir Gilbert Paull, a Justice of the Supreme Court of Judicature)

This booklet contains, in Part I, a brief history of the legislative and other backgrounds leading to the establishment of Home Office Approved Probation Hostels, and Part II constitutes a survey of the first 106 boys who passed through the Leicester Hostel for Boys (of which the Author was Warden). Mr. Gilbert Paull (as he then was) wrote in his Foreword "... it contains the real pith of all one requires to know, either when deciding whether a lad should go into a hostel, or when considering how and to what extent control should be exercised, or indeed when considering what alterations are desirable in the hostel system. It should be a real help to those whose tasks and whose interests bring them into touch with delinquency."

JUSTICE for LEPERS

"Within the last thirty years a revolution has taken place in the treatment of leprosy".—
from the B.B.C. broadcast "Science and Leprosy."

"Leprosy may be the first of the great infectious diseases to be brought under control largely by chemotherapy".—
The Lancet, January 28, 1950.

Despite these great advances only one patient in every ten can obtain the new treatment which cures. There are 3,000,000 sufferers in the British Commonwealth of Nations. They await your verdict: Health or a life-sentence to the Living Death.

Please help to dispense Justice, through a Gift of Healing to:

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED

For Orphans of Merchant Seamen

Since its foundation in 1827, several thousand orphans of Merchant Seamen have been cared for, educated, and set up in life; and there are now nearly 300 boys and girls at the school, many of whom lost their fathers during the late war.

The assured income does not meet the expenditure. New subscribers are urgently needed to bridge the gap. Please show your appreciation of our Merchant Seamen by sending donations or subscriptions to the SECRETARY, THE ROYAL MERCHANT NAVY SCHOOL, 28 St. Mary Axe, London, E.C.3.

*Second Edition.ADVICE ON ADVOCACY IN THE LOWER COURTS

By F. J. O. CODDINGTON, M.A. (Oxon.), LL.D. (Sheff.), of the Inner Temple, Barrister-at-Law with a foreword-essay by Rt. Hon. Sir NORMAN BIRKETT, P.C., LL.D.

When the first edition of Dr. Coddington's book appeared in 1951, the legal press were almost lyrical in their praise, and the book was soon out of print. For the second edition, the length has been increased by almost half as much again, and the scope widened to include the County Courts. There are a number of new illustrative stories. As in the former edition, the book contains that sparkling essay on advocacy in general by Lord Justice Birkett, and for the new edition, Dr. Coddington has included a hitherto unpublished cartoon by the late C. Paley Scott.

Dr. Coddington was Stipendiary Magistrate at Bradford from 1934 until his retirement in 1950. This, coupled with his twenty years at the Bar, has enabled him to write with both authority and insight a book which should be read by all who practise in the Lower Courts, by those who like to be taken behind the scenes of the drama of persuasion, and by those who enjoy legal yarns.

OF all war wounds that are the inevitable legacies of air, sea and land fighting perhaps the most numerous and distressing cases are those helped by the Ex-Services Welfare Society, which is the only specialist organisation concerned exclusively with mentally and nerve shattered ex-service men and women of all three Services and the Merchant Navy.

To all those who turn to the Society for help it offers THE DAWN OF A NEW LIFE.

GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS AS PURCHASERS

By A. S. WISDOM, Solicitor

In this Booklet, the Author lists the land-acquisition powers of Government Departments. These are given in chronological order, dating from the Admiralty (Signal Stations) Act, 1815, to present day statutes of much wider application.

The booklet follows the pattern made familiar by the Author's previous booklets "Local Authorities' Powers of Purchase" (now out of print); "Local Authorities' Byelaws," and "Appropriation of Land by Local Authorities," and is printed in tabular form. It will be found of considerable value as a Summary of, and Index to, the powers possessed by Government Departments in relation to land acquisition.

END OF VOLUME CXX

Five Reasons why you should help the Children's Home

- 1 BECAUSE it helps little people in need who cannot help themselves.
- 2 BECAUSE it tries to make up the loss of mother or father, and gives a home to destitute children who haven't one.
- 3 BECAUSE it trains its boys and girls for self-supporting careers.
- 4 BECAUSE it is in the national interest that these children should be given a chance.
- 5 BECAUSE the Home is not nationalised and still depends on voluntary support. Legacies are specially solicited.
